

U.S. COAST GUARD

ENLISTED RECRUITER

"Self-discipline is the root quality that will improve every aspect of your life."

Jocko Willink

Contact

Email: Phyllis.D.Almaraz@uscg.mil

Mobile: 619-876-3568

CS1 Phyllis Almaraz \(qr codes.pro\)

Articles

<https://lexleader.net/tag/phyllis-almaraz-golden-gloves/>

Almaraz Is Regional Golden Gloves Champ
LexLeader

St. Inigoes Coast Guardsman punches way to second Golden Gloves title | Local | dcmilitary.com

Leonardtown resident Almaraz wins regional golden gloves title | News | somdnews.com

ALCOAST 354/20 - SEP 2020 2020 LATINA STYLE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENTS \(govdelivery.com\)

CS1 ALMARAZ, PHYLLIS D.

Petty Officer First Class Phyllis Almaraz currently serves at the Recruiting Office San Diego as a Production Recruiter. As a Production Recruiter, she leads the efforts to recruit the best applicants who are most suitable to become a shipmate in the United States Coast Guard, conducts screening, processing and accession paperwork corresponding to an enlistment, and focuses on building a workforce to support Coast Guard mission needs and the Coast Guard's Diversity and Inclusion Strategic Plan. Currently standing as the number one Production Recruiter in the U.S. Coast Guard, she aspires to continue to help and mentor others and has applied to become an officer as is currently awaiting results.

Prior to her arrival to Recruiting Office San Diego, CS1 Almaraz was selected to represent the Coast Guard as the Latina Style 2020 Distinguished Military Service Award recipient while onboard USCGC HADDOCK. Additionally, her previous duties included Food Service Officer for USCGC HADDOCK at Sector San Diego, Food Service Officer for Station St. Inigoes, at St. Inigoes, Maryland, and Duty Cook onboard USCGC ABBIE BURGESS at Rockland, Maine.

CS1 Almaraz holds various qualifications from her various unit, including Food Service Officer, Leadership, Inclusion, & Diversity Advisory Council Secretary, Boarding Team Member, Level 2 Interpreter, Master at Arms Petty Officer, Surface Cutter Swimmer, and Morale Petty Officer and Social Media outreach Petty Officer. Off duty, she mentors high school females who previously lacked positive role models yet aspired to serve in the military. CS1 Almaraz became a 2018 Golden Gloves Regional Champion in the 112-pound novice division and 2019 Golden Gloves Regional Champion in the 106-pound novice division. CS1 Almaraz also trains at her local CrossFit Gym and is seeking to get qualified as a level 1 trainer.